

14th Lectures in Memoriam Prof. em. Frans Vanistendael

The Institute for Tax Law and Deloitte Tax Consultants have the pleasure to invite you to the 14th Lectures in Memoriam
Prof. em. Frans Vanistendael which will take place on May 5th 2022 at Promotiezaal (Universiteitshal, Naamsestraat 22, 3000 Leuven)

Programme

- 09.00h: Registration and Coffee
- 09.30-09.45h: Opening by the Chairman, Prof. Axel Haelterman, KU Leuven
- 09.45-10.15h: A vision for taxation in the single market without discrimination and abuse, but not without representation, Prof. Axel Cordewener, KU Leuven, Member of the editorial board of EC Tax Review
- 10:15-10:45h: The Principles of subsidiarity and proportionality in direct tax harmonization, Prof. Ana Paula Dourado, Lisbon University, Founding member of the GREIT
- 10:45-11:15h: Abuse of rights in tax cases, Prof. Koen Lenaerts, KU Leuven, President of the Court of Justice of the European Union

- 11:15-11:45h: Interpretation of the principle purpose-test in Member States' tax treaties in light of the prohibition of abuse under ATAD, Prof. Luc De Broe, KU Leuven, Holder of the Deloitte Chair in International and EU Tax Law

11.45-12.15: The possible relevance of the CJEU case-law in Investment Treaty Arbitration: the case of tax-related investment disputes, Prof. Robert Danon, Université de Lausanne, Chairman of the PSC International Fiscal Association

12.15-12.30h: Q&A session

12:30-13:45h: Lunch

13:45-14:15h: Minimum and maximum statutory corporation tax rates: lessons from the Ruding Report for the future challenges of corporate taxation in the European Union, Prof. Pasquale Pistone, University of Salerno and WU Wien, Academic Chairman at International Bureau of Fiscal Documentation

14:15-14:45h: The EU budget, EU own resources and taxes: the challenges for the coming years, Prof. Adolfo Martín Jiménez, University of Cadiz, Chairman European Association of Tax Law Professors

14.45-15:15h: Fiscal federalism in the EU: reflections from a Belgian constitutional perspective, Prof. Bruno Peeters, Universiteit Antwerpen, Chairman of the editorial board of the Algemeen Fiscaal Tijdschrift

15:15-15.45h: Tax reform: a challenging task for academics and politicians, Prof. Koen Geens, KU Leuven, former Minister of Finance and Justice

15.45-16:00h: Q&A session

16.00 – 16.30h: A tribute to Professor em. Frans Vanistendael by Prof. Luc De Broe

16.30 – 17.30h: Reception

Registration and fees

Please register by April 29, 2022 at the latest at "link"

The registration fee is 400 € per participant (including the conference book and lunch, VAT not applicable (art.44, §2, 4° VAT Code). The fee is 275 € if you register without ordering the book. Fee is payable upon receipt of invoice.

Practicalities

Parking is available in Parking Ladeuze (Monseigneur Ladeuzeplein 20, 3000 Leuven)

A certificate of participation will be delivered for the Belgian bars.

For further questions, please contact Ingrid Matthys (+ 32 (0)16 32 52 06 or at ingrid.matthys@kuleuven.be).